

Saturday

2nd Garry Ion has just returned from a visit to SW Uganda where he was looking at various projects for the Diocese of Muhabura. With Bishop Cranmer Mugisha he travelled to very remote areas and met some of the Batwa pygmy community. In Northern Rwanda he looked at a hotel/guest house that had some design and structural problems, then on the way home he inspected a school and a hospital. He now hopes to spend time at his "drawing board" while his work permit is processed. Mercifully the long dry period seems to be at an end.
