

Saturday

4th Garry Ion arrived back in Kampala three days ahead of his luggage! But when it did get to him it was all intact praise the Lord. His Dad is progressing well after his operations so Garry was able to return with a light heart. He will begin by visiting school projects in Uganda which he prays have gone well in his absence.

11th Pray for the team as they decorate the Sports Hall for the Holiday Club. Pray for those travelling to Leyland today to attend the Phatfish Concert Tour at St Andrew's Church.

18th Pray for the Tearfund partners working in Somalia, Ethiopia and Kenya that they will be able to respond to the needs of these countries who continue to suffer from one of the most severe droughts on record. Pray that the longed for rains will be plentiful relieving the anguish of yet another dry season.

25th Daddy & Me drop in session. Pray for the volunteers working in the Op Shop, both those working hard preparing stock for sale and those who assist and chat to customers in the shop. Give thanks for such good support from the community.

Sunday

Sunday Club: Kate, Daphne, Rachel, Judy and Nick

CYFA – Nick, James, Daniel & Andy

The Gap – Adrian & Helen

5th All Age Service. Pray for the family of Joshua Mitchell as they bring him for Baptism and for Wendy as she speaks. Also Frank at Cummersdale and Paul at evening Communion. John preaching at Lanercost this morning. Holiday Club Prayer meeting at 5.15pm in Parish Centre.

12th Peter speaking at morning Communion, John at St Lukes, Wendy at Cummersdale and John speaking tonight. Holiday Club Prayer meeting at 5.15pm in the Parish Centre.

the children feel welcome and settled in their groups.

Colmore Street

21st Cornerstone Prayer meeting tonight. Ladies Guild Pie & Pea Supper.

West Vale Court

28th Homegroup. Lucy Goldie asks us to pray that she will be guided by God about what her next steps are for after October.
She really wants to know sooner, rather than later, so maybe a peace with it all too. The ship will go into dry dock in April. Pray for all the preparations that need to happen now for it. Especially for school as they will be on land.
Lucy is not sure where she will be living. John at Diocesan "Vision to Action" day, Penrith

Cumberland Street

Wednesday

Toddlers am - Kate, Sheila Toddlers pm - Kate, Jean

Cummersdale Assembly - Nick

1st Cornerstone Prayer meeting. Prayer & Praise. Stuart Clear: Setting up for the new field service in Togo has gone well so far. The main patient screening will take place today so please pray that the people God wants us to meet will hear about the screening and come along, and that we will have discernment to know what to do.
Also, for calm and safety on the day.

Johns Place

8th Homegroups – pray for good discussions amongst the groups.

Junction Street

15th Holiday Club: Pray for safety for all involved throughout this week and for stamina for those leading the various groups.
Holiday Club Prayer Meeting tonight.

Blunt Street

22nd Site Meeting for Cornerstone – continue to pray for the Contractors and Architects, for good relationships and easy communication. Annual Parochial Church Meeting – pray for wisdom as we appoint new Wardens and PCC members, for members of the staff team as they present reports on their work, and for David as he presents the accounts.

East Vale Court

Music Group

2nd Give thanks for the work of the Bereavement support Group and the opportunities it gives to draw near to people at difficult times.

Holme Terrace

9th Homegroup. Pray for Tim Cottingham and the DECE Clothing Project. They will soon move the workroom from the main NetWorks office into a newly furnished building next to the school. They will now be based right in the heart of the community they work in, which opens up a whole host of opportunities to further relationship building.

Charlotte Street

16th Holiday Club. Pray for the Family Bowling Evening tonight, that this would be a great time of fun and getting to know people better. Bereavement support

Friday

Rainbows – Dawn, Kate, Kim, Rachel

Brownies – Margaret N, Rachel,
Fiona, Margaret M

Guides – Lesley, Margaret M, Alison, Margaret N

3rd Tim C: Pray for the polytunnel project. They hope to have the go-ahead to construct 5 new ones. Pray for wisdom for those making decisions on which families can steward the 1000 euro investment. These families are going to set an example to the rest of the community.

Bridge Terrace

10th Garry Ion has important meetings in South Sudan this month and because he returned ten days later than planned there are problems with MAF flights so do pray that he is able to get there in time to attend these vital meetings. While he was in the UK electricity prices have doubled and the British pound has weakened so he gets less Ugandan shillings to each pound both of which affect his income.

North Street

17th Holiday Club: Give thanks for a great week and pray that the kids would remember all they have learned about Jesus.

Freer Court
