

Saturday

1st Op Shop reopens at the new premises today – please pray for all the volunteers as they settle into their new surroundings. Stuart Clear: The second session of plastic surgeries, (often to repair severe burn injuries), starts in October. Please pray for quick healing for the patients, and few complications, so the patients can heal before the ship leaves in December. Pray also for Stuart as he has some time off from the ship this month.

8th Pray for safety and good fellowship for the GAP group away. Peter Maiden speaking at Lichfield Keswick Convention this weekend. Prayer for the City church leaders prayer breakfast 15th Leaders Away Day at Lanercost led by Rod Allon-Smith.

22nd Blessing Service today for Melanie and Lasantha Mallikaarachchi following their wedding in Sri Lanka. WAGS Craft and Cake Evening - please pray for a good evening of fellowship in aid of the JSF Project in Burundi.

29th Please continue to pray for Garry Ion's visa and work permit. Although he has been told these have been granted the work permit, when it came through, was for only one year instead of three so has to be amended. He needs to have these physically in his hands before we give up praying.

19th Ladies Guild trip out today. Cornerstone Prayer meeting tonight. Tearfund: Please pray for wisdom for leaders and experts around the world working to tackle hunger and especially for those attending the UN Committee on World Food Security from 18 to 22 October, that they will be willing and able to make great progress in identifying ways to combat food insecurity. Westmorland Street

26th Homegroups. Garry Ion will be travelling for most of the month so please pray for safety. They've had very heavy rains recently which make driving conditions dreadful as many roads run out of tarmac surfaces and so just turn to mud tracks which are difficult to negotiate. Sheffield Street
