

Saturday

3rd Stuart Clear will be travelling a lot in September, firstly to Mercy Ships head office in Texas for two weeks for budget meetings, then for some holiday time to visit family and friends. Please pray that God will bless this time of meeting up with people he hasn't seen for close to a year. Pray for smooth travels (5 flights in 24 hours at one point), and that despite all the travel there will be time to rest and be refreshed.

10th Pray for Peter Maiden speaking at a Liverpool church's anniversary weekend. He also asks for wisdom as he continues to deal with some significant issues with OM International.

17th Garry has many plans on his drawing board but funding from the West has almost dried up. This together with inflation in Uganda, which greatly affects the cost of materials and fuel, and the weakness of the Ugandan shilling are all things to pray about. His temporary visa needs to be renewed this month so please continue to pray that his permanent visa comes through very soon.

24th WAGS (Women and God) morning with June Kennedy. Daddy and Me – pray for Ed Mitchell as he takes on the running of this group and that many Dads will want to come along, play with their kids and make some new contacts.
